Talbot Library to be book vendor April 14 at genealogy seminar in Tulsa

3/15/2018

1 Comment

The Talbot Library & Museum will be a book vendor at the April 14 genealogy seminar hosted by the Cherokee Family Research Center! The Talbot Library and Museum specializes in Cherokee history and genealogy, including Northeast Oklahoma & Northwest Arkansas. It will be a very good seminar for persons interested in Cherokee genealogy. The seminar will be held at the Sherwin Miller Museum of Jewish Art at 2021 E. 71st in Tulsa, OK from 8:30AM to 3PM.

Participants at the seminar will learn to begin their ancestry search and discover various resources available to them. See you There!

Check out our online book store at <http://www.talbotlibrary.org/online-bookstore.html> for a list of books that we offer!

We've just added three great new books to our online store. These books are also available at the Talbot Library and Museum in Colcord, OK. Our address is found here!

NED CHRISTIE, THE CREATION OF AN OUTLAW AND CHEROKEE HERO By Devon A. Mihesuah

This is a long awaited, newly published (2018) book about local legend, Ned Christie. Much has been written about him, but the author has done extensive research and presents some new material. The late, Roy Hamilton, Cherokee historian and Christie family member, contributed information to the book, and endorsed the authors research. More info and purchase here.

MURDER IN THE COUNTY, 50 TRUE STORIES OF THE OLD WEST (WASHINGTON COUNTY ARKANSAS)

By Denele Campbell

Here is another recently published book(2017) of interest to historians and researchers. Denele Campbell is a resident of Washington County, AR, author and historian. She has done extensive research on the subject of these murders and violent incidents during the years of 1838-1898. More info and purchase here.

HILDEBRAND'S MILLS: TWO CIVIL WAR INDUSTRIES ON FLINT CREEK, CHEROKEE NATION

Presented by Talbot Library & Museum, and Goingsnake District Heritage Association

We are presenting a booklet, originally prepared in 2004 , to support information and funding by the then active Beck-Hildebrand Mill Museum Association for the purpose of restoring the Mill. The original Mill was built circa 1840's, then destroyed by a flood in 1892. The replacement structure was completed in 1907 and referred to as the Beck Mill after its
