The Talbot Library & Museum (TL&M) sold books at the Cherokee Heritage Center during the 2015 Cherokee National Holiday this weekend. Despite the heat, several book sales and great contacts were made with the help of some members of TL&M board and staff.

Remember you can buy books at our online book store at any time. (<http://www.talbotlibrary.org/online-bookstore.html>)

Our collection of books for sale include genealogy books, Native American history, and local history of the NE Oklahoma and NW Arkansas region.

Thanks to Glenita Randolph Guthrie for the photos taken during the 2015 Cherokee National Holiday!

A new book is now available in our online book store and at our library in Colcord, OK!!

1806: The Exploration & Settlement of the Cherokee Nation in Indian Territory -- by D. Bruce Howell

The book covers the earlier history of the area, beginning with the explorers, and history of the Three Forks area where the three rivers, Arkansas, Grand and Verdigris all meet. "1806" describes the many events in that century leading up to Oklahoma statehood in 1907 in what is now northeast Oklahoma. Of course, it includes the Cherokees being relocated, and a new Cherokee Nation being born.
