On April 22, Teresa Allcorn, hosted local student Tyler Luedecke at the Talbot Library & Museum (TL&M). Teresa is a long-time TL&M board member, genealogist, and historian. Tyler shadowed Teresa throughout the day and learned about the exhibits, setting them up, and arranging displays. He even assisted with arranging the newest military exhibit at TL&M. Tyler expressed his thanks in a nicely worded letter to Teresa (see photo). Teresa enjoyed the day with Tyler and we all are so happy that we can continue to share the deep history and rich heritage of the people, events, and places of this region with others! Thanks for visiting us Tyler!

The Talbot Library and Museum, Colcord OK hosted Jack and Pat Fletcher on Saturday, April 30, 2016. They are the authors of the "Cherokee Trail Diaries" Volumes 1-3.

The Fletchers spoke about their work in collecting information, including cross referencing trail diaries, that better informs us all about the Cherokee Trail. They spoke of work from several groups in several states that have pieced together the evidence and story of the Trail. Those in attendance agreed it was an expert presentation of detailed information and facts that the Fletchers have collected over many years. It was such an interesting talk. We are so glad and thankful that Pat and Jack were able to make a stop at the Talbot Library & Museum during their travels!

The Cherokee Trail was the name given to the two routes taken by Cherokees traveling west to the California gold
