Our newest book is Number 10 in the series, Records of the Moravians Among The Cherokees!

Records of the Moravians Among the Cherokees, March to Removal, Part 5 - "This is Not My Home Any More" Volume 10 (1834-1838)

This volume covers the years 1834-1838 and is the newest book in this popular series.

This volume covers the "The Treaty of New Echota, which was signed in late December 1835 by a handful of Cherokee head men. This seals the fate of the Cherokee Nation, east of the Mississippi. The Cherokees are now a homeless people in their ancient homeland. The Moravian Church's missionaries record these events. The forced removal begins.

The latest "T.L. & M. Genealogy Magazine" is hot off the press and has been mailed. Please be looking for your copy in the mail if you have not already received it.

In the latest T.L. & M. Genealogy Magazine you will find a wonderful feature article written by Jay Hannah called "In Pursuit Of Presidents and Principal Chiefs." In addition, we have a great piece talking about the Dusty Richards Research Book Collection recently donated to the Talbot Library and Museum.

Plus so much more! Enjoy!

And remember, issues are also available at Talbot Library and Museum in Colcord, Oklahoma!

UPDATE 1/21/21: A great note about this issue of TL&M from a subscriber and contributor. Great read! Read it here.
