Talbot Library and Museum was recently recognized with the "Cultural Perpetuation Award" at the 2021 Cherokee Nation Community and Cultural Outreach Conference. This award was received for our Cherokee cultural and history emphasis and information. We are so thankful to the Cherokee Nation for this award and recognition.

Transcript from award ceremony -

Bradley Wagnon, Community Outreach Coordinator: "Our cultural perpetuation award for local organization goes to Talbot Library and Museum. I've only been to Talbot Library and Museum once, but I can't say enough about the information that is contained there. I feel like this is a hidden gem for Cherokee culture and history. It's in Colcord and all I can say about Talbot Library and Museum is if you haven't been and you are Cherokee, you need to go!

So the cultural perpetuation award goes to Talbot Library and Museum!"
